Photography, Film and Recording Policy

By registering for HPETSS 2020, and for other good and valuable consideration, you agree to Hewlett Packard Enterprise Company’s (“HPE’s”) Photography, Film, and Recording Policy set forth below:

HPE TSS 2020 is held in a public space. Therefore, we do not prohibit participants, exhibitors, sponsors, news organizations, and others from photographing, filming, or recording general event activities for non-commercial purposes. However, no photographing, filming or recording is permitted of sessions and demos that are covered by a Confidential Disclosure Agreement. In addition, photographing, filming, and recording for commercial purposes is strictly prohibited without HPE’s prior written authorization. Anyone found to violate this policy may have his or her equipment confiscated and photographs, films, and recordings destroyed.

You hereby authorize HPE to photograph, film, and record you and to use the resulting photographs, films, and recordings, and your picture and likeness, together with any other material, in any manner or media whatsoever (whether now known or hereafter devised) anywhere in the world in perpetuity for the purposes of advertising or trade in promoting and publicizing HPE and its products and services. You agree that you shall have no right of approval, no claim to compensation, and no claim arising out of any use, alteration, use in a fictionalized context, or use in any composite form of your picture or likeness. You agree that HPE shall be under no obligation to exploit any of the rights granted herein. You also agree that you waive any right that you may have to enjoin or otherwise prevent the exploitation of the rights granted herein. You represent and warrant that you have the full right to grant the rights granted herein.
Force Majeure

The parties’ performance under this agreement is subject to act of god, war, government regulation, homeland security red alert issued 45 days or less from start of program, infectious disease, epidemic or other serious public health issue that results in a travel advisory or warning 45 days or less from the accommodation start date, terrorism, disaster, strikes, civil disorder, curtailment or significant interruption of transportation facilities that affects 20% or more of the event’s attendance, or any other emergency of a comparable nature beyond the parties’ control, making it inadvisable, impossible, illegal or which materially affects a party’s ability to perform its obligations under this Agreement (hereinafter referred to as a “Force Majeure event”). Neither party will be deemed in default of this Agreement to the extent that performance of the subject party’s obligation is delayed or prevent by reason of a Force Majeure event, provided that the affected party shall give the other party written notice of the Force Majeure event promptly and, in any event, within fifteen (15) days of discovery of such Force Majeure event.

Limitation of Liability

For violation of obligations and tort, HPE and its vicarious agents are liable without limitation in case of willful conduct and gross negligence. As far as the violation on the part of HPE and its vicarious agent is not considered as willful or gross negligent the liability under this agreement is limited to a maximum amount of 100,000-- €. Any further liability is excluded, in particular such for consequential damages and loss of profit or data. This limitation does not refer to damages due to unauthorized use of intellectual property, life threatening bodily injury or adverse health effects and claims under the Product Liability Act.
