Force Majeure

The parties' performance under this agreement is subject to act of god, war, government regulation, homeland security red alert issued 45 days or less from start of program, infectious disease, epidemic or other serious public health issue that results in a travel advisory or warning 45 days or less from the accommodation start date, terrorism, disaster, strikes, civil disorder, curtailment or significant interruption of transportation facilities that affects 20% or more of the event's attendance, or any other emergency of a comparable nature beyond the parties' control, making it inadvisable, impossible, illegal or which materially affects a party's ability to perform its obligations under this agreement. Neither party will be deemed in default of this agreement to the extent that performance of the subject party's obligations is delayed or prevent by reason of a Force Majeure event, provided that the affected party shall give the other party written notice of the Force Majeure event promptly and, in any event, within fifteen (15) days of discovery of such Force Majeure event.

Limitation of Liability

For violation of obligations and tort, HPE and its vicarious agents are liable without limitation in case of willful conduct and gross negligence. As far as the violation on the part of HPE and its vicarious agents is not considered as willful or gross negligent the liability under this agreement is limited to a maximum amount of 100.000 €. Any further liability is excluded, in particular such for consequential damages and loss of profit or data. This limitation does not refer to damages due to unauthorized use of intellectual property, life threatening, bodily injury or adverse health effects and claims under the Product Liability Act.
